Academic Attendance & Detention Policy

OFFICE OF THE DEAN ACADEMICS • POLICY GUIDELINES

REF: ACAD-POL-ATT-01

1. ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENTS

Students must maintain mandatory minimum attendance across all courses in a semester to remain eligible to appear for the Semester End Examination (SEE). Attendance thresholds vary based on program domain.

Standard Programs (All except Law)

- Standard Threshold: Minimum 85% attendance per course.
- Condonation Range: Between 75% and 85% for approved medical issues or unavoidable circumstances.
- Strict Detention: Below 75% attendance results in automatic course detention.

Law Programs (BBA-LLB, LLB, LLM)

- Standard Threshold: Minimum 70% attendance per course.
- Condonation Range: Between 65% and 70% for approved medical issues or unavoidable circumstances.
- Strict Detention: Below 65% attendance results in automatic course detention.

2. ATTENDANCE WEIGHTAGE & MARKS ALLOCATION

While attendance carries no default marks, course coordinators may award up to a maximum of 5% total marks for attendance. If allocated, criteria must be explicitly detailed in course handouts prior to commencement and pre-approved by the Dean Academics.

ATTENDANCE RANGE (%)	STANDARD PROGRAMS (MARKS)	LAW PROGRAMS (BBA-LLB, LLB, LLM) (MARKS)
Highest Bracket	[98 - 100%] = 5 Marks	[96 - 100%] = 5 Marks
Upper Intermediate	[95 - 97%] = 4 Marks	[91 - 95%] = 4 Marks
Mid Intermediate	[92 - 94%] = 3 Marks	[86 - 90%] = 3 Marks
Lower Intermediate	[89 - 91%] = 2 Marks	[81 - 85%] = 2 Marks
Base Bracket	[85 - 88%] = 1 Mark	[70 - 80%] = 1 Mark
Below Eligibility Minimum	Below 85% (even if condoned) = 0 Marks	Below 70% (even if condoned) = 0 Marks

L-T-P Component Note: Marks allotted for attendance apply cumulatively across all Lecture-Tutorial-Practical (L-T-P) components of a course rather than exclusively to theory components. For Elective Courses with an "X-0-0" structure, marks apply solely to theory.

3. DETENTION POLICY & CONDONATION RULES

Detention is executed on a per-course basis. Failing to maintain minimum required attendance disqualifies the student from sitting for the Semester End Examination in that course.
